"Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, in recognition of the outstanding accomplishments of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, . . . do hereby designate the months of September and October as Parent-Teacher Enrollment Months in Texas, and call upon the citizens of our State to assist this distinguished organization's important program."

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER WILLING TO TAKE ON RAIN-MAKING JOB IF HE'S GIVEN WIDE ENOUGH TERRITORY

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route one must need rain, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

According to an article I ran across in a newspaper which a dry August wind blew across my front screen door and which I pulled off as fast as I could because it was stopping what breeze there was, a scientist claims that rain-making is now within reach of man but before he goes any further we've got to have a sort of Rain Commission to decide where and when a rain should be produced, for legal protection.

Regardless of how dry it is in any given spot, he said, some farmer can always be found who doesn't want it to rain at this particular moment, he's still got a crop he's gathering and next week would be a better time.

Therefore, he claims, we need a National Rain Commission to decide when the majority need rain, then turn it on, regardless.

This seems to me to be just another example of needless government spending. There's no need to set up a government bureau. I can handle this job on my own. It's a job for private enterprise.

If the government will stick to drought relief and turn all the rain over to me, and let me make a normal charge, I will contract to make it rain everywhere. The secret is to take in enough area, it's volume that counts.

My charge would be one cent per acre for every acre that gets as much as one inch, and where the farmer needing a rain wouldn't pay a penny an acre for an inch?

I might not be able to please everybody, even the president can't do that, but I doubt if a week would go by when I didn't produce rain somewhere in the United States. Oh I know there'd be soreheads in 40th areas complaining I was neglecting them, but sooner or later in any area where it has rained before, I could make it rain again. This is a big country and no man could be expected to get round to everybody every week. It's like tax relief, it takes time.

Penny dislikes school...

but she'd like it less if she studied by a kerosene lamp per grand-dad's era. In present day education Penny doesn't realize how much importance is placed upon adequate school lighting. Unlike her superiors she is unaware that Reddy Kilowatt is her silent friend, protecting her precious eyesight by lighting up the pages for faster, easier and more accurate reading. When Penny grows up she'll realize how fortunate she was to be able to study under modern electric lighting.

Back to School...

As Summer Vacations draw to a close, and thoughts turn to the ways and needs for returning to school, give some thought to locating a church near your college or university.

Attend services regularly, worship the Lord in His house. Give a good accounting of your worship life, as well as your studies.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Mistletoe has a varied history.
It was the instrument of death in the form of an arrow, that was used to kill the Sun God, Balder, in Norse mythology. It also was known as a medical charm to Europeans who once carried it around for good luck, as well as a cure for ulcers, epilepsy and infertility.

But Texans and the rest of the nation seem to prefer the modern use for mistletoe—an excuse to kiss some fair lady.

Tour the Governor's Mansion
Near the entrance to the capitol grounds in Austin, you can see the white brick Governor's mansion standing just one block to the southwest.

As you approach the distinguished adobe, with its well-kept lawn covering an entire block, you observe six huge Ionic columns prominently standing in front. These columns are made of cedar logs hauled from Bastrop, Texas in 1856, when the mansion was built.

Upon entering the mansion, you see a spiral staircase rising at the back of the hall. Mounting the stairs you enter the mansion's most famous room—the Sam Houston Room.

Here you see the bed used by Sam Houston, the man who served Texas both as its President and as its Governor. In the same room you also will see the mahogany desk of Stephen F. Austin.

Of all the features of this great mansion, the Sam Houston Room is best remembered by its visitors.

Old Fort At Mexico
Mexico, a thriving little city in Central Texas, Limestone County, fast is becoming a business-minded, industrial center.

This is far removed from its history as an early oil-boom town.

You can imagine what happens when an oil strike abruptly changes a town of 4,000 into a town of 50,000. That's what happened to

Mr. Hubert Johnson, Superintendent of the Methodist Home, Waco, Texas, since August 1, 1933, was honored recently by the Home's Alumni Association for his thirty years of service to children. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, at right, received an avalanche of cards, letters and telegrams from former residents of the home. Mrs. Ethel Gregory Rodgers of Houston, Texas, President of the Alumni Association, is shown presenting the greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Congratulations came from hundreds of former residents of the home now living around the world. Superintendent Johnson has guided the Methodist Home during its greatest period of growth. The home now cares for over 450 children, and in its 73 year history has cared for over 8,000 boys and girls. The Methodist Home serves Texas and New Mexico.

Mexia. But things are stable and settled now.

Another site, with a stormy history, still stands nearby though—Old Fort Parker.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—Gov. John Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has its eyes on tuition-free colleges and "super universities."

Also being looked upon with favor are Texas junior colleges and vocational schools. Committee is searching for a way to meet educational needs in the next decade.

Task is made difficult by the need for 900,000 new junior and senior college graduates by 1974.

The prediction, called "conservative" by committeeman Gifford Johnson, Dallas Industrial leader, includes 456,000 four-year college graduates, and 440,000 graduates of two-year schools.

Right now the total enrollment in 19 of the state's four-year colleges and 34 private senior colleges totals 175,100. Junior college enrollment in 35 state junior colleges and 10 private schools is 37,200.

If these students all were to graduate, they would produce about half the number of graduates needed in the next four years. But Johnson said the problem is many won't graduate. There is a big drop-out problem in colleges and an even bigger drop-out problem in the grades below college level.

Johnson stated that only 54 per cent of the students enrolled in the third grade in 1953 graduated from high school in 1963.

What to do about drop-out problem, which Governor Connally has called "one of the most critical problems of the decade?" Both Johnson and committeeman Tom Sealy of Midland, as well as other members of the committee which is composed of some of the state's most powerful citizens, recommended more and better counseling through all the high school years and college.

"If students aren't encouraged to stay in high school and perform well there, they won't have a chance," Johnson said.

His concept of free colleges and state universities which would admit only the top 15 per cent of high school graduates brought a lot of favorable comment from the committee. But Chairman H. B. Zachry of San Antonio warned all that this was just the preliminary to a preliminary report. Final report to Governor Connally is not due until August, 1964.

POLL TAX CAMPAIGN ON — Governor Connally will kick off the League of Women Voters' campaign for repeal of the poll tax with a speech on September 9—the day the women launch a two-month drive for repeal of the tax.

November 9 is the date voters will decide whether to strike the poll tax requirement for voting from the State Constitution.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Sen. John Tower, congressmen and state legislators are being invited to the September 9 meeting in Austin.

NEW REGIME — Commissioners of two brand-new state agencies were sworn into office, as well as the man who will take Attorney General Waggoner Carr's place on the State School Land Board Judge Wilson Fox of Taylor.

New commissioners are Lois Regulatory Commission.

ance of such warrants in exchange for a like amount of indebtedness represented by such claims and accounts. The City has made arrangements for the contractor or contractors to receive face value for audited and approved claims and accounts, and the contractor or contractors shall be bound by such arrangement.

NO BID may be withdrawn within thirty (30) days after the rate on which bids are opened.

IN CASE of ambiguity or lack of clearness in stating the price in the bids, the City reserves the right to consider the most advantageous construction thereof, and to reject any or all bids, and to award a contract or contracts to that bidder or bidders who, in the opinion of the City Council, offers the proposal to the best interest of the City. The City may also waive formalities.

Jno. V. Howard Jr., Mayor, City of Hamlin, Texas (City Seal) 45-2c

Frank Miskell, and Parks and Wildlife Commissioners, Will Odom of Austin, chairman, J. M. Dellinger of Corpus Christi, and A. W. Moursund of Johnson City. All four have been trying to keep up with new roles and heavy commission agendas at the same time.

PARKS BOARD BLOWS OUT — State Parks Board held its last meeting just a few days before being replaced by the Parks and Wildlife Commission. But it could not transact any business since it couldn't get a quorum.

Chairman Maurice E. Turner of Huntsville was there, as well as Ed Kilman of Houston and Max Starcke of Austin. But Reese Martin of Beaumont was out of the state; Uvalde member Harry Hornby was ill, and J. Carter King of Albany was not available.

Parks planner E. J. Urvanovsky of Texas Tech was on hand to present an estimated $40,000,000 plan for a model parks system — developed with a $70,000 legislative appropriation. But the board asked him to make his recommendations to the Parks and Wildlife Commission at some later date.

REHABILITATION RECORD SET — J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, claimed a new record for the Texas Rehabilitation program. He announced that a total of 3,566 disabled men and women were rehabilitated into productive jobs during the year ended on June 30.

Edgar said 365 of these persons had been receiving public assistance payments — totaling some $346,000 a year. He figured their new ability to be self-supporting now would save many thousands of dollars in federal and state assistance funds.

OLD FOLKS ASSURED OF ASSURANCE — New law assuring Texans 65 years of age and older the right to purchase health insurance now in effect. First period of enrollment for the cooperative plan will be October 1-31.

All licensed insurance agents in the state are eligible to give details about the plan.

SLOW DRIVING PROHIBITED — Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, issued a reminder that the new speed law specifically makes it a violation to drive a vehicle so slowly as to impede traffic. Minimum limits, as well as maximum limits, are being posted on the highways throughout the state.

YOUTH Austin was stacked full of high school leaders as Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held a conference on youth.

The 1,140 young people who attended were told to prevent juvenile crime and school dropouts. It is up to them to put the ideas into effect through high school organizations.

Basically, the solution is in finding things for junior high and high school students to do. Recreation for those who only need to keep occupied and jobs for those who need to help their families at 14 or 15 were the major prescriptions.

Carr hoped the conference had set some brushfires in the civic consciousness of high school leaders to burn out the pockets of trouble for many thousands of Texas young people.

PADRE — In a colorful ceremony, the State of Texas handed over some 90,000 acres of submerged land in Laguna Madre to become a part of the Padre Island National Seashore.

Hailed as a tourist attraction, the Padre project was created by Congress and the Texas Legislature agreed to second.

contribute the state's land. Reserved to the Permanent School Fund are the oil and gas which may lie under the shallow waters of Laguna Madre.

The National Park Service, with a $1,500,000 appropriation to start, will buy the uplands of Padre Island from private owners. Governor Connally, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler and Attorney General Carr, members of the School Land Board which signed a deed, all predicted bright things for this major addition to the Texas recreation scene.

POLLUTION — Some areas of the state have developed major water pollution problems and the new Texas Water Pollution Control Board has set out to cure them.

Board will have a hearing on September 25-26 designed to protect the vast Ogallala formation, which supplies irrigation and municipal water in most of the Panhandle and South Plains. Expected to come from the hearing is an order prohibiting the use of open surface pits for the disposal of salt water produced with oil and gas.

North America is the third largest continent, with Asia and Africa ranking first and second.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOHNSON

The big news out our way this week was the cool weather, no rain has fallen so far but the cool front brought some relief from the heat we have been having for several weeks, without even one break. Rain has fallen all around but Hamlin, and vicinity, has only received a few sprinkles.

Sunday was the last weekend before school starts and also the beginning of dove season, so most folks out our way went somewhere or had company, the attendance at church Sunday and Sunday night suffered as a result.

The H. L. Ford children have been staying at home for several days while their parents are visiting a brother, Doug Ford and family, in New Mexico. They went with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry got home safely from their trip to Austin and Houston. It seems that they took a bus from Austin to Houston, and left their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum had lots of company over the Labor Day weekend. Their son, Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Rosenbaum, Pampa, were visitors. Mrs. Rosenbaum's brother, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Downey and daughter, Fort Worth, and their sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King, Midland, were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mackey, Los Angeles, California, came last Thursday, to visit with her relatives, including a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray, Sunday, the Gray children all went to Anson to spend the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gray. Mr. and Mrs. Mackey came for their son, Buster, who has spent the summer with the Winson Grays.

Other visitors of the Grays and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Johnson, were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson, who had come for their sons, Bruce and Barry, who had spent a week with the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newland, and children also were weekend visitors in Hamlin, visiting part of the time with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newland.

Mrs. George Wainscott went last week to Pecos, to visit a sister, and also visited a son in Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beauchamp and Debra, visited last Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.

FASHIONS FOR EVENING AT 1963 STATE FAIR

This fall you'll compliment your hostess by "dressing" for dinner. From left to right are pictured three fashion highlights of the seventh annual Sewing Fashion Festival with its exciting preview of 35 new fall fashions shown daily at the 1963 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 5 through 20. At the left is shown an over dress of Gottschalk Brocade lined with American Silk Mills Peau d'Or topping slim tapered pants of Cantoni Velvet made from Vogue Pattern #1220. The soft shaping and the wide curving of the neckline are new. Pictured in the center is a design which brings into focus the new sportive look for evening wear, the skirt, blouse and pull-over ensemble. Made from McCall's Pattern #7069, the skirt of Kaplan's Mohair Loop in turquoise is topped by an aqua silk blouse with Glade Green overblouse of velvet. On the right Butterick Pattern #3488 fashions a patio dress with Empire waist and flowing skirt made of Rosewood's Pussy Willow in a flower garden print.

AUSTIN — With daytime temperatures consistently reaching into the high nineties over most of Texas, and with the prospect of even hotter temperatures during the weeks immediately ahead, there is every reason to anticipate a growing number of deaths from heat prostration or sunstroke.

The number of such deaths in Texas usually totals some 15 or 20 in any given year. Several heat connected deaths have already been registered called for to replace that lost. Salted nuts or crackers might be used for the same purpose. Rest is important during hot weather.

It is smart to exercise moderately all year around. But it can easily be overdone in the summer. Common sense dictates that hard yard work or active sports should be confined to cooler parts of the day.

P-TA Sets Drive For Memberships During Sept.-Oct.

This is the theme of the PTA membership enrollment period of the Texas and National Congresses of Parents and Teachers for the 1963-4 year. September and October have been designated as PTA membership Enrollment Months by official memorandum of Governor John Connally.

Said the Governor, in part: "On October 19, 1909, the organization's aim was and so remains 'to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community'... Few, if any, organized groups have enjoyed such a tremendous growth. This is undoubtedly due to the challenging program which appeals alike to men and women of all occupations and professions."

"Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, in recognition of the outstanding accomplishments of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers... do hereby designate the months of September and October as Parent-Teacher Enrollment Months in Texas, and call upon the citizens of our State to assist this distinguished organization's important program."

Pipers Open With Rotan Friday at 8

The Pied Pipers open the fall football season Friday night as they journey to Rotan to take on their opening opponent, the Yellowhammers. Yellowhammers are expected to be seeking revenge for the defeat handed them by the Pipers last year, their only blot on their otherwise perfect record as the Rotan eleven went on to win the Class A State Championship last year.

Since this is the season's first game and the Pipers were able to have only one scrimmage game this year, Head Coach D. C. Andrews and his staff expect to make some changes in the line-ups during the game and as the season progresses.

But, to open the game Andrews has come up with the following starting line-up: L.E. — Taylor Fincannon, 170 pounds; LT — Doyle Bell, 185 pounds; returning starter and letterman; LG — Micky Moore, 180 pounds, returning starter and letterman; C —

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route one must need rain, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

According to an article I ran across in a newspaper which a dry August wind blew across my front screen door and which I pulled off as fast as I could because it was stopping what breeze there was, a scientist claims that rain-making is now within reach of man but before he goes any further we've got to have a sort of Rain Commission to decide where and when a rain should be produced, for legal protection.

Regardless of how dry it is in any given spot, he said, some farmer can always be found who doesn't want it to rain at this particular moment, he's still got a crop he's gathering and next week would be a better time.

Therefore, he claims, we need a National Rain Commission to decide when the majority need rain, then turn it on, regardless.

This seems to me to be just another example of needless government spending. There's no need to set up a government bureau. I can handle this job on my own. It's a job for private enterprise.

If the government will stick to drought relief and turn all the rain over to me, and let me make a normal charge, I will contract to make it rain everywhere. The secret is to take in enough area, it's volume that counts.

My charge would be one cent per acre for every acre that gets as much as one inch, and where's the farmer needing a rain wouldn't pay a penny an acre for an inch?

I might not be able to please everybody, even the president can't do that, but I doubt if a week would go by when I didn't produce rain somewhere in the United States. Oh I know there'd be soreheads in drought areas complaining I was neglecting them, but sooner or later in any area where it has rained before I could make it rain again. This is a big country and no man could be expected to get round to everybody every week. It's like tax relief, it takes time.

Yours respectfully, letterman and starter at center last year; QB — Johnny Overman, 160 pounds; LHB — Robert Pearce, 155 pounds, letterman and starter; FB — Mike Shivers, 170 pounds, letterman; RHB — Larry Butler, 165 pounds, letterman and starter.

The Pipers' starting line will average 180 pounds and the backfield will average 162 pounds.

The team elected captains for the season and the three boys are: Bell, Moore and Butler.

The Yellowhammers have a rebuilding job on their hands after graduation hit their state championship team. Their starting backfield will include All-State tackle, converted to fullback, Howard Van Loon. Others in the backfield will be returning tailback, Bruce Baugh, wingback, Eddie Mac Lang, and quarterback, Pete Garcia.

Game time will be 8 p.m. and all seats will be general admission. No tickets are on sale in Hamlin.

Tuesday is Hamlin Student Day at West Texas Fair

ABILENE — A vast array of educational exhibits depicting America's vital space programs — present and future — will await Hamlin school children and teachers who will be guests of the West Texas Fair on Tuesday, September 10.

Prime space exhibit will be the unusual "Moon Base," an intricate series of models showing what life would be like inside manned moon buses of the future. The huge, enclosed moon base will be making its first West Texas appearance, Gray said.

A towering Atlas missile, similar to the ones which boosted United States astronauts into orbit flight, will make its debut at the fair also, in addition to a National Aeronautics and Space Administration exhibit. The Fort Hood Sky Divers will be featured in twice-daily free fall parachute jumps.

Back to School...

As Summer Vacations draw to a close, and thoughts turn to the ways and needs for returning to school, give some thought to locating a church near your college or university.

Attend services regularly, worship the Lord in His house. Give a good accounting of your worship life, as well as your studies.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Penny dislikes school...

but she'd like it less if she studied by a kerosene lamp per grand-dad's era. In present day education Penny doesn't realize how much importance is placed upon adequate school lighting. Unlike her superiors she is unaware that Reddy Kilowatt is her silent friend, protecting her precious eyesight by lighting up the pages for faster, easier and more accurate reading. When Penny grows up she'll realize how fortunate she was to be able to study under modern electric lighting.

...adequate study light is important in the home too.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Gov. John Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has its eyes on tuition-free colleges and "super universities."

Also being looked upon with favor are Texas junior colleges and vocational schools. Committee is searching for a way to meet educational needs in the next decade.

Task is made difficult by the need for 900,000 new junior and senior college graduates by 1974.

The prediction, called "conservative" by committeeman Gifford Johnson, Dallas Industrial leader, includes 456,000 four-year college graduates, and 440,000 graduates of two-year schools.

Right now the total enrollment in 19 of the state's four-year colleges and 34 private senior colleges totals 175,100. Junior college enrollment in 35 state junior colleges and 10 private schools is 37,200.

If these students all were to graduate, they would produce about half the number of graduates needed in the next four years. But Johnson said the problem is many won't graduate. There is a big drop-out problem in colleges and an even bigger drop-out problem in the grades below college level.

Johnson stated that only 54 per cent of the students enrolled in the third grade in 1953 graduated from high school in 1963.

What to do about drop-out problem, which Governor Connally has called "one of the most critical problems of the decade"? Both Johnson and committeeman Tom Sealy of Midland, as well as other members of the committee which is composed of some of the state's most powerful citizens, recommended more and better counseling through all the high school years and college.

"If students aren't encouraged to stay in high school and perform well there, they won't have a chance," Johnson said.

His concept of free colleges and state universities which would admit only the top 15 per cent of high school graduates brought a lot of favorable comment from the committee. But Chairman H. B. Zachry of San Antonio warned all that this was just the preliminary to a preliminary report. Final report to Governor Connally is not due until August, 1964.

POLL TAX CAMPAIGN ON — Governor Connally will kick off the League of Women Voters' campaign for repeal of the poll tax with a speech on September 9—the day the women launch a two-month drive for repeal of the tax.

November 9 is the date voters will decide whether to strike the poll tax requirement for voting from the State Constitution.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Sen. John Tower, congressmen and state legislators are being invited to the September 9 meeting in Austin.

NEW REGIME — Commissioners of two brand-new state agencies were sworn into office, as well as the man who will take Attorney General Waggoner Carr's place on the State School Land Board Judge Wilson Fox of Taylor.

New commissioners are Loan Regulatory Commission and an agency of two brand-new state agencies were sworn into office, as well as the man who will take Attorney General Waggoner Carr's place on the State School Land Board Judge Wilson Fox of Taylor.

slowly as to impede traffic. Minimum limits, as well as maximum limits, are being posted on the highways throughout the state.

YOUTH — Austin was stacked full of high school leaders as Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held a conference on youth.

The 1,140 young people who attended were told to prevent juvenile crime and school drop-outs. It is up to them to put the ideas into effect through high school organizations.

Basically, the solution is in finding things for junior high and high school students to do. Recreation for those who only need to keep occupied and jobs for those who need to help their families at 14 or 15 were the major prescriptions.

Carr hoped the conference had set some brushfires in the civic consciousness of high school leaders to burn out the pockets of trouble for many thousands of Texas young people.

PADRE — In a colorful ceremony, the State of Texas handed over some 90,000 acres of submerged land in Laguna Madre to become a part of the Padre Island National Seashore.

Hailed as a tourist attraction, the Padre project was created by Congress and the Texas Legislature agreed to second.

contribute the state's land. Reserved to the Permanent School Fund are the oil and gas which may lie under the shallow waters of Laguna Madre.

The National Park Service, with a $1,500,000 appropriation to start, will buy the uplands of Padre Island from private owners. Governor Connally, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler and Attorney General Carr, members of the School Land Board which signed a deed, all predicted bright things for this major addition to the Texas recreation scene.

POLLUTION — Some areas of the state have developed major water pollution problems and the new Texas Water Pollution Control Board has set out to cure them.

Board will have a hearing on September 25-26 designed to protect the vast Ogallala formation, which supplies irrigation and municipal water in most of the Panhandle and South Plains. Expected to come from the hearing is an order prohibiting the use of open surface pits for the disposal of salt water produced with oil and gas.

North America is the third largest continent, with Asia and Africa ranking first and second.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOEGER

The big news out our way this week was the cool weather, no rain has fallen so far but the cool front brought some relief from the heat we have been having for several weeks, without even one break. Rain has fallen all around but Hamlin, and vicinity, has only received a few sprinkles.

Sunday was the last weekend before school starts and also the beginning of dove season, so most folks out our way went some where or had company, the attendance at church Sunday and Sunday night suffered as a result.

The H. L. Ford children have been staying at home for several days while their parents are visiting a brother, Doug Ford and family, in New Mexico. They went with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry got home safely from their trip to Austin and Houston. It seems that they took a bus from Austin to Houston, and left their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum had lots of company over the Labor Day weekend. Their son, Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Rosenbaum, Pampa, were visitors. Mrs. Rosenbaum's brother, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Downey and daughter, Fort Worth, and their sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King, Midland, were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mackey, Los Angeles, California, came last Thursday, to visit with her relatives, including a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray. Sunday, the Gray children all went to Anson to spend the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gray. Mr. and Mrs. Mackey came for their son, Buster, who has spent the summer with the Winson Grays.

Other visitors of the Grays and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Johnson, were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson, who had come for their sons, Bruce and Barry, who had spent a week with the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newland, and children also were weekend visitors in Hamlin, visiting part of the time with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newland.

This fall you'll compliment your hostess by "dressing" for dinner. From left to right are pictured three fashion highlights of the seventh annual Sewing Fashion Festival with its exciting preview of 55 new fall fashions shown daily at the 1963 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 5 through 20. At the left is shown an over dress of Gottschalk Brocade lined with American Silk Mills Peau d'Or topping slim tapered pants of Cantoni Velveteen made from Vogue Pattern #1220. The soft shaping and the wide curving of the neckline are news. Pictured in the center is a design which brings into focus the new sportive look for evening wear, the skirt, blouse and pull-over ensemble. Made from McCall's Pattern #7069, the skirt of Kaplan's Mohair Loop in turquoise is topped by an aqua silk blouse with Glade Green overblouse of velveteen. On the right Butterick Pattern #3488 fashions a patio dress with Empire waist and flowing skirt made of Rosewood's Pussy Willow in a flower garden print.

AUSTIN — With daytime temperatures consistently reaching into the high nineties over most of Texas, and with the prospect of even hotter temperatures during the weeks immediately ahead, there is every reason to anticipate a growing number of deaths from heat prostration or sunstroke.

The number of such deaths in Texas usually totals some 15 or 20 in any given year. Several heat connected deaths have already been registered this summer from various areas of the State.

Heat exhaustion is caused by an inadequacy of the heat dissipating mechanism of the body. It occurs as a result of exposure to a hot, humid atmosphere such as is common over most of Texas during summer months. Sunstroke is a form of heat stroke, complicated by an absorption of radiant energy from the sun which causes a temperature rise in local body areas such as the brain.

How do you avoid heat stroke? By doing what you can to keep heat loss and heat production in balance.

The wearing of loose, airy clothing is known by physiologists to be among the best means to maintain that balance.

Elevations of body temperature will develop inevitably when tight clothing is worn because it prevents loss of body heat through conduction, radiation and evaporation of sweat. And this much is physiologically true: the body thermostat is so constructed that a fall in temperature is much harder than is a rise.

Diet plays a part in maintaining a heat production-heat loss balance. Heavy meals are difficult to digest in hot weather. High protein foods should be de-emphasized and fruits and vegetables should be accentuated, unless a physician prescribes otherwise.

Body fluids lost through perspiration during a hot day must be replaced or painful stomach cramps will result. Fruit juices—two or three glasses per day—makes a pleasant way to make up the loss.

The body also loses salt through perspiration, so if work or exercise causes profuse sweating, salt tablets are called for to replace that lost. Salted nuts or crackers might be used for the same purpose. Rest is important during hot weather.

It is smart to exercise moderately all year around. But it can easily be overdone in the summer. Common sense dictates that hard yard work or active sports should be confined to cooler parts of the day.
